

War Bonds Are Saving Lives, Beating Axis Into Defeat

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

This started out to be a column on the great defeat which we are piling up against the Axis forces in Tunisia, but somehow it's got mixed up with that $13,000,000,000 war bond drive of ours.

It isn't that I'm particularly money-minded, for I don't know just how much thirteen billion dollars is. Figures like that don't mean much to the average citizen. However, being just back from a 35,000-mile tour of the war theatres, I do know that our troops in Tunisia are being rushed to victory on the backs of your war bonds and mine.

Saving Many Lives

With even more satisfaction one can record that scores of thousands of Allied soldiers' lives are being saved as this bloody battle swirls up the coast towards northern Tunisia where the final Axis stand seems likely to be made. Only a few weeks ago I visited the Libyan battlefields where not so far back the Allies suffered defeat and heavy casualties, not because they didn't fight courageously, but because they lacked equipment.

We are winning now because we have the equipment as well as the men. One of the things that impressed me most on my tour, as I have recorded in this column before, was the great striking power the Allies are piling up in the European and Middle Eastern theatres. I saw mountainous stores of equipment which are just now beginning to make themselves felt in a big way. And that equipment comes out of our war bonds.

Marshal Rommel is racing north, his defenses in southern and central Tunisia shattered by the combined assault of British, French and American forces. One of the most important elements in the Allied success has been air superiority.

$350,000 Bomber

Warplanes helped destroy Rommel's defenses at the outset in the Mareth line. Bombers have blasted his bases and communications on both land and sea. Clouds of light bombers and fighters at this moment are pursuing his routed troops and exacting a terrible toll in casualties.

Well now an average fighter plane costs something like $165,000. A light bomber is more, and so on up until you pay $350,000 for the Flying Fortress which is doing such magnificent work not only in the Mediterranean zone but over western Europe.

Bombs are being spewed into Rommel's ranks from the air. Every 100-pounder costs over $41, and from there the prices range up to $872 for the big 4,000-pound Devil. The machineguns with which the fighters are strafing the unhappy Axis troops cost $1,500 each, and the ammunition runs into big money when you figure the expenditure for a day's work.

$165,000 Shooting

A bulletin from London says that 15 more Axis vessels have been destroyed or damaged in the Mediterranean by British submarines. That cuts Rommel off from a lot more aid. A medium submarine costs $3,000,000. If the British were doing their usual good shooting, and used one torpedo for each ship hit, they would have expended $165,000 worth of torpedoes, since an average torpedo costs $11,000. I don't know where $165,000 could be invested on more advantageous terms.

MAY CONTINUE SCHOOL TAXES AT 20 MILLS

Gettysburg school directors at their April meeting Monday evening made a preliminary inspection of the Gettysburg school district budget for the 1943-1944 school year—based upon a continuation of the present 20-mill tax levy—and then laid it aside for final action in May.

The budget was prepared and presented by Lloyd C. Keefeauver, superintendent of the Gettysburg public schools, who described details of "the steadily improving financial condition" of the local school district. Unless large, unforeseen expenses are encountered during next year, the steady improvement in school finances can be continued, the superintendent stated.

In discussing the budget the superintendent said that because of expected reduced enrollments, one less teacher may be needed at the high school next year and some reduction may be made in the amount to be spent for textbooks and supplies. Enrollment changes also may effect the $20,000 expected to come from tuition from non-resident pupils, it was explained.

Commencement June 1

The proposed budget contemplates total receipts of $119,129 and expenses of $110,167 leaving an estimated balance of $9,962. The estimates for next year follow fairly closely the actual figures for the 1941-1942 school year and estimated figures for the current year, all of which were submitted to the directors in summarized form by Superintendent Keefeauver for comparison with the proposed budget figures.

The board discussed possible curriculum changes at the high school in the event of the induction of key instructors who are of draft age. The school officials here expect to confer with Selective Service board members on the status of the teachers whose services it might be difficult or impossible to replace.

The annual high school commencement exercises will be held Tuesday evening, June 1, it was announced by Superintendent Keefeauver. There will be a guest speaker and a simplified student program.

Inspection "Satisfactory"

The annual baccalaureate service will be held Sunday evening, May 30, in St. James Lutheran church. Speakers for the two programs have not been announced.

The directors read a letter from the State Department of Health stating that a recent inspection has shown the high school building here is "very satisfactorily maintained" from a health point of view.

President Ralph Z. Oylor reported a request from J. William Kendelhart, Jr., superintendent of maintenance for the State Highway department in this county, that the (Please Turn to Page 2)

Formal Retreat This Evening At 7:45 O'clock

The formal retreat by the 55th College Training Detachment of the Army Air Corps will be held tonight at 7:45 o'clock. The retreat was originally scheduled for Monday evening but was postponed because of inclement weather.

The exercises, in which the entire Air Corps contingent here will participate, is one of the most impressive of Army exercises.

Parking will be prohibited in the square and in the first half block of the four streets leading into the square from 7 o'clock tonight until the close of the exercises.

TO REORGANIZE COUNTY USO FOR LOCAL PROGRAM

Plans for the reorganization of the Adams county USO unit were formulated Monday evening at a meeting of the county organization in the social rooms at Christ Lutheran church.

Details of arrangements for a dance to be held Saturday for the Army Air Corps men at Gettysburg college were announced.

Dean W. E. Tilberg, chairman of the organization since its inception nearly three years ago, pointed out that there has been no "official" organization of the USO during that time. It started with his appointment as chairman, Dean Tilberg said, and he appointed several others who set up a tentative organization. All activities have been planned by calling together representative men and women to take care of a particular activity. For the latest drive for funds, chairmen were appointed in each community and they in turn appointed committees in their own communities. The entire list of community chairmen was made up of women.

Local USO Work

Present plans call for a meeting within the next two weeks to which all of the community chairmen will be invited. The community chairmen will be asked to bring with them interested men and women from their own sections.

This group will set up a board of directors which will act as the governing body and will elect necessary officers.

Mrs. J. Walter Coleman, Mrs. Edmund W. Thomas and Mrs. Roy A. Alexander were appointed to a committee to contact all of the community chairmen and urge them to be present for the meeting.

Plan For Dance

A committee headed by Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, and including Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Clyde Berger, Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Ellen Tipton Buehler and Mrs. Frederick Tilberg is in charge of the dance.

Town, county and college girls are being selected to act as hostesses for the affair to be held at the college gymnasium and other entertainment to be held in the future. Women's civic groups will be invited to act as sponsors for the dances in the future. A different group will be in charge each time.

Congressional Unit Intact; New Number

Under the Congressional re-districting bill now before the state Legislature with the backing of Governor Martin, Adams, York and Franklin counties will remain a single district but will be designated as the twenty-first instead of the present twenty-second district, an Associated Press dispatch from Harrisburg disclosed today.

The pending bill provides for 33 Congressional districts. Now there are 32 districts with the state's thirty-third Congressman being elected at large.

Under the present set-up the twenty-first district is made up of Northampton, Carbon, Monroe and Pike counties. Under the pending act the twenty-second district will be formed by Clearfield, Centre and Blair counties. The proposed act placed Cumberland, Dauphin and Lebanon in the eighteenth district. They now form the nineteenth district.

MRS. A. R. WENTZ IS NEW Y HEAD; LIST $500 GIFT

Mrs. A. R. Wentz was elected president of the board of directors of the YWCA at the April meeting of the board Monday afternoon at which the receipt of a $500 gift by the "Y" was announced.

The donor of the gift, which is in the form of a Series G U. S. War bond, is Mrs. Cora Berkey, West Broadway, a friend of Mrs. Annie Danner Reinwald whose benefactions made possible the establishment of the Y. The gift was made as a demonstration of her interest in the work of the YWCA in Gettysburg, it was announced.

Earlier this year the Y received another gift of $500 from an anonymous donor. Both sums have been placed in the organization's endowment fund which now contains $2,300.

Directors Installed

The staff of new officers headed by Mrs. Wentz includes: Mrs. Howard S. Fox, vice president; Mrs. Carl C. Rasmussen, secretary; and Mrs. Wilbur Rank, treasurer.

Mrs. Robert Fortenbaugh, retiring president, thanked the directors for their cooperation and support during the two years in which she served. Mrs. Wentz asked the same assistance during her administration.

The retiring president installed these new members of the board for terms of two years: Mrs. Donald P. McPherson, Jr., Mrs. Howard S. Fox, Mrs. Ralph R. Gresh, Miss Margaret Myers, all of Gettysburg; and Mrs. Charles Smith and Mrs. Marshall Longenecker of the Arendtsville district.

Tea For Directors

Mrs. Rasmussen said the Girl Reserves are preparing for a carnival to be held late this month. The board members voted their thanks and appreciation to the advisers for their "splendid work" during the club year. The group of advisers includes: Mrs. Glenn L. Bream, the Misses Phyllis and Vivian Wickey, Mrs. Fred P. Haeblen, Miss Dorothy Keeney, Miss Ruth Slifer and Miss Griselda Ossatic.

Miss Margaret Myers said the organizations using the Y last month included the county and district Sunday School associations, salvage and USO groups, the local DAR, Camp Fire Girls, WCTU and a Boy Scout committee in addition to all of the Y-connected organizations.

The devotions were conducted by Mrs. A. Harrison Barr.

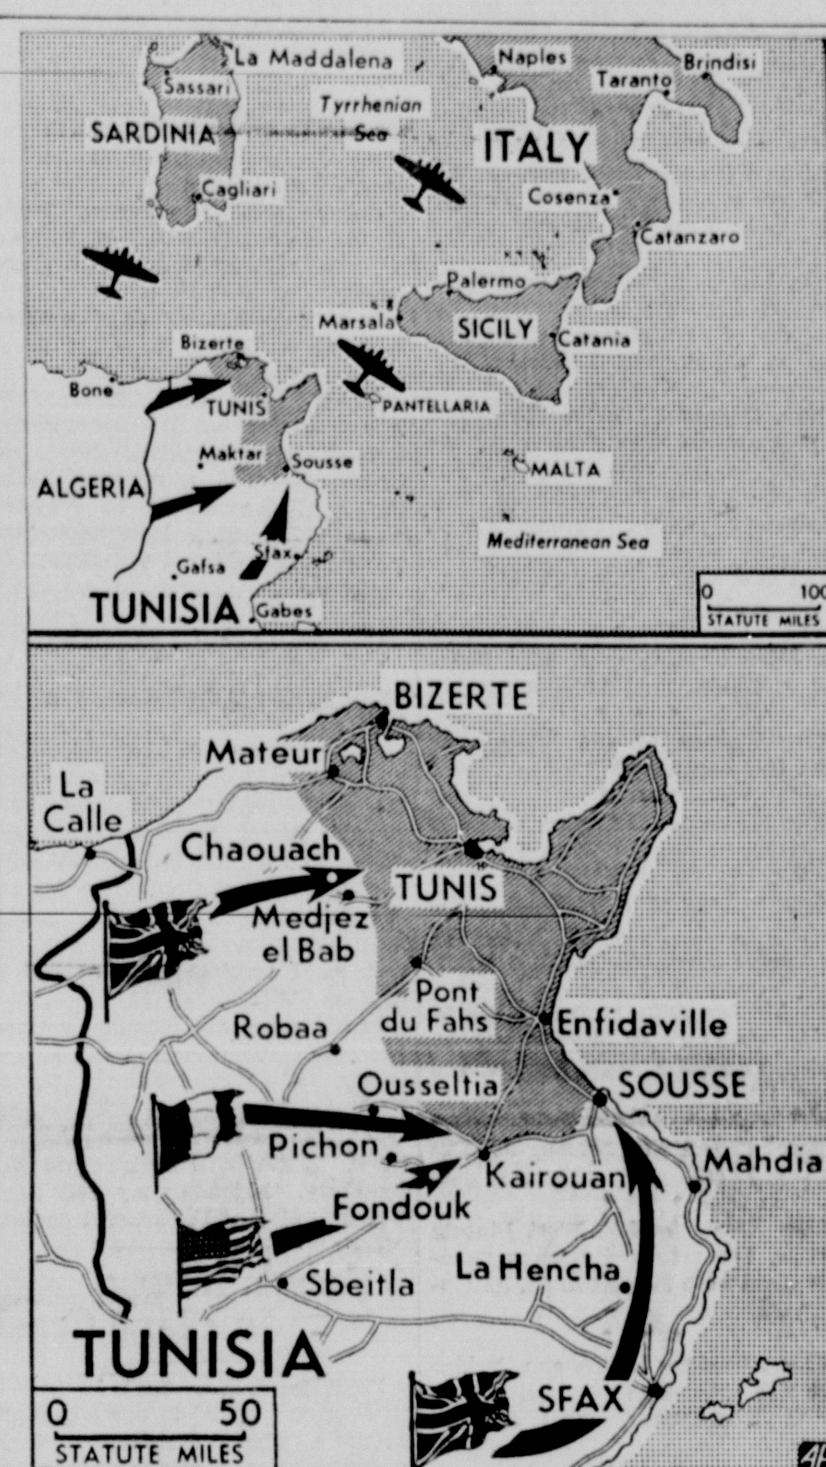

After the business meeting Mrs. Fortenbaugh entertained at a tea in the Y dining room.

Chief Guise will be in his office from 7 to 8:30 p. m. to fingerprint the spotters who have already volunteered, and additional persons who wish to sign for duty at the post.

Net Of Steel Tightens Around Axis In Tunisia

THREE ARMIES ARE ADVANCING AGAINST ENEMY

By DANIEL DE LUCE

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, April 13 (AP)—Allied forces pushed the enemy into a steadily contracting area in the northern tip of Tunisia, gaining new ground north of Souss and Kairouan, on the southern side of the Axis box, and in the Medjez-El-Bab sector on the northwest, Allied headquarters announced today.

(The Algiers radio, in a broadcast recorded in London, said that the British Eighth army had reached Enfidaville, 27 miles north of Souss and 50 miles south of Tunis, and that nearly the whole of the Italian Vittoria division had been captured.)

210,000 Axis Troops

(London military quarters estimated that Marshal Erwin Rommel was withdrawing into his Tunis-Bizerte defenses, with only about 210,000 men, 150,000 of them Germans.)

Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's seasoned Eighth army patrols engaged rearwards of the African corps on the coastal road between Lake Kelbia and the sea as Rommel maintained his withdrawal through the Enfidaville line under a constant pressure.

While French troops mopped up the Djebel Oussella on the west flank and continued to advance northward along the grand Dorsal range, the British First army in the Medjez-El-Bab area, 35 miles southwest of Tunis, captured additional hill vantage points.

(The Vichy radio, German-controlled, said that Rommel had been reinforced by air in the last few days with both men and weapons.)

All Forces Advance

(The Italian communique, broadcast by the Rome radio and recorded by The Associated Press, acknowledged that 60 dead and 124 injured were left in Allied raids on Italy and Italian islands.)

Patrols from both the Eighth army and the First army are pushing forward north between the coast and the hills, and French forces continue to press forward in the hills to the east of the Oussella plain, the war bulletin said.

In the air, Allied fliers continued to pound enemy bases and air-dromes, scoring hits yesterday on docks and shipping at Bizerte; on a tanker and barges at Trapani, in Sicily, and on an enemy airfield at Ste. Marie Du Zit, it was announced.

The Ste. Marie Du Zit airfield first was attacked Sunday night and many fires were left burning after direct hits on the buildings, it was said.

Aerial Assaults

"Attacks on this target and on other enemy airfield in Tunisia were continued yesterday by formations of B-25 Mitchells and A-20 Bostons," the communique said, "Bombs burst among aircraft on the ground and more fires were started."

Ste. Marie Du Zit is 46 miles northwest of Souss and 30 miles southeast of Tunis. It is nine miles east of Zaghouan.

Flying Fortresses carried the attack to Bizerte, and other Axis Mediterranean supply ports. A "very large fire" was caused by the destruction of the tanker in Trapani harbor, it was said.

Escorting P-33 Lightnings shot down four enemy aircraft during the bombings.

Drawn back into their mountain siege line that guards Tunis and Bizerte, the surviving Axis forces of the prelude to the final act of their Rommel and Von Arnim dug in for bloody African tragedy.

American and British generals have promised to annihilate the last Axis garrison in Africa.

There are no indications yet whether the German commanders and their Italian satellites will attempt an Axis Dunkerque rather than go down fighting as did the German Sixth army at Stalingrad. But the Allies assert they are ready for either eventuality.

R. C. BENEFIT PLAY AT G.H.S.

Gettysburg high school students will present a three-act mystery comedy, "Suspense," in the school auditorium Thursday afternoon and Friday evening for the benefit of the Red Cross war relief fund.

The first performance will be given Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be open to grade and high school pupils as well as townspeople. The final presentation will be given Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The same cast will be used in each performance.

Home room groups and other organizations at the high school will attempt to underwrite the play expenses so that the entire receipts will be available to the Red Cross. Four home room groups and three other organizations already have made contributions.

Grade school pupils will be admitted for 30 cents while high school pupils and adults will be charged 40 cents. Student budget tickets will admit high school pupils to the play.

The production is being directed by the Misses Ruth McIlhenny and Ruth Scott of the English department. Fred G. Troxell is in charge of ticket sales.

ARMY WEAPONS SHOWN TO LIONS

Sergeant Raymond Strohm, member of the R.O.T.C. staff at Gettysburg college, demonstrated and described the use of the Garand semi-automatic and the Browning automatic rifles at the weekly dinner meeting of the Gettysburg Lions club, Monday evening, at Mrs. Smith's restaurant.

Models of the Garand (M-1) weapon, now standard equipment for U.S. infantry bringing an increase in the firepower of the individual soldier to more than double that achieved with the old Springfield, and the Browning automatic which can fire up to 550 shots per minute were passed around among the clubmen for their examination.

Sergeant Strohm was presented by A. E. Hutchison, who arranged the program for the evening.

Ladies' Night Plans

President William A. Beales announced details of arrangements for the annual spring ladies' night dinner next Monday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg. The dinner will be a joint affair with members of the local Rotary club and their ladies and members of the local Soroptimist club. Officers attached to the 55th College Training Detachment here and their wives will be guests while aircrew members at the college will provide the entertainment.

Lion Glenn L. Bream spoke briefly in behalf of the Second War Loan drive which opened Monday and urged members of the club to do their bit by investing in government bonds. He described the various types of bonds available.

About 30 Lions and guests attended the meeting.

Double Investment

By ADM. ERNEST J. KING

Commander-in-Chief, U.S. Fleet

(Written for The Associated Press and The Gettysburg Times)

"The officers and men of our armed forces are carrying out our operations in the active theaters under all conditions of weather and enemy action. 24 hours a day.

"Those officers and men are the finest in the world. It is my responsibility to see that the naval components are properly trained, properly equipped, properly led, and employed to best advantage against the enemy.

"If our men are to keep on out-fighting the enemy, they must be kept supplied with ships and planes and guns and tanks in ample numbers. This is an expensive proposition, but it will be more expensive in the long run if we do not give them what they need.

"The purchase of War Bonds, which will help finance the war, is a double investment. One investment is for the individual's pocketbook, the other in and for the United States, in the form of support which will make itself felt on the fighting fronts.

"I earnestly urge every one to buy as many as possible."

Aerial Victory Balks New Japanese Offensive

Allied Headquarters in Australia, April 13 (AP)—News of a smashing Allied air victory in the skies over Port Moresby, New Guinea, was coupled today with an official warning that the Japanese have massed 200,000 first-line troops at bases above Australia and that a new enemy bid to regain the initiative in the southwest Pacific may be expected at any moment.

The victory over Port Moresby, in which 37 of 100 Japanese air raiders were reported knocked out, brought to 76 the number of enemy planes accounted for in the past two days, and General MacArthur's headquarters said these losses apparently had blunted a large scale air offensive and "dislocated the immediate plans" of the Japanese.

That the Japanese are still a force to be reckoned with, however, was emphasized by Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, commander of Allied ground forces in this theater, who told a press conference that the enemy is making a tremendous effort to regain parity and then mastery of the air.

Expect Big Attack

"The Japanese are concentrating their aggressive attentions—already developed to a strength to 200,000 first line troops and a powerful air (Please Turn to Page 2)

Appeal From Burgess

"As Burgess of Gettysburg I ask my fellow citizens to join to the full extent of their financial ability in the Treasury Department's Second War Loan campaign which opened on Monday.

"I feel sure that when the final returns are in, our community will stand high among towns of our size and resources in the country for our accomplishments in this great patriotic drive.

"The Government is asking the people of this country to lend 13 billion dollars to help prosecute this war. All of us know how vital this money is in our common cause. We have sent our fathers, sons, brothers and friends off to fight. We must provide the money to put the finest weapons and other munitions in their hands so that they can end this war as quickly as possible.

"The Second War Loan campaign is more than a mere transfer of our money to the Government for a period of good interest rates. It is a demonstration of our will to victory and our desire to back up our men on the fighting lines. The Treasury Department has recognized this basic patriotic aspect of the Second War Loan campaign by offering a series of securities designed for every pocketbook.

"For the younger generation who cannot afford to buy the larger denomination bonds I suggest that as their part in this huge campaign they make every effort to fill their war stamp books and exchange them for bonds before the close of the drive.

"Let us all take to our hearts the theme of this campaign: "They Give Their Lives—You Lend Your Money."

FINED $80,000 FOR BOYCOTTING NEW YORK TIMES

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The Justice department announced today that the New York Retail Dry-goods association and 15 department store members had been fined $5,000 each on pleas on nolo contendere to a charge of violating the anti-trust laws by boycotting the New York Times because it had announced an increase in advertising rates.

The charge was made in the form of an information which differs from an indictment in that the accusation is made by a government prosecuting officer instead of by a grand jury.

The defendants have 48 hours in which to pay the total of $80,000 in fines.

These defendants were listed by Acting Attorney General Charles Fahy as:

Retail Dry Goods Association of New York City; Abraham and Straus, Inc.; B. Altman & company; Arnold Constable & company; Best and company; Bloomingdale Brothers, Inc.; Bonwit Teller; Gimbel Brothers; Frederick Loeser and company; Lord and Taylor; James McCreery and company; R. H. Macy and company, Inc.; Russells; Saks and company; Franklin Simon and company, Inc.; and Stern Brothers.

MUST LIST FOOD PRICES FOR OPA

Every proprietor of an eating and drinking establishment is required under an OPA order to file a copy of each menu, bill of fare or price list in use during last week with local War Price and Rationing boards by May 1. None of the proprietors in this section of Adams county has filed to date, the local rationing board office said today.

If menus or bills of fare were in use showing the price charged for every food item, meal and beverage sold during the period from April 4 to 10, inclusive, the owner or proprietor may simply sign the menus and file them, retaining copies for his own records. If such lists were not in use, they must be made up and filed by May 1, the order states.

"The board will carefully check all filed prices to determine that they correspond to the prices actually charged during the seven-day period," an OPA announcement states.

The OPA is authorized to issue maximum regulations fixing prices to be charged by proprietors for meals, food items and beverages, it was announced. This statement was added: "The Office of Price Administration hopes that by making every effort to insure that the consumers continue to receive the greatest possible value for their money, you (proprietors) will make such action unnecessary. Any increase in prices, reduction in quality or deterioration in quality may force the office to issue a local freeze order."

PAST GRANDS AT 131ST MEET

Marking the one hundred and twenty-fourth anniversary of the founding of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in the United States, members of the Past Grands' association of the IOOF of Adams county conducted their first meeting of the year Monday evening in Littlestown where members of Sylvania lodge No. 613 were hosts.

President Murray E. Wentz of Gettysburg presided over the meeting which was the 131st of the county association.

The address of welcome was delivered by H. Dean Stover of Littlestown and C. D. Bream of Bendersville responded. The roll call showed an attendance of 66. John Riley, chairman of the entertainment committee, introduced the Rev. Walter K. Beattie, secretary of the Hoffman orphanage, who spoke on the subject of "Giving the World Your Best." A minstrel skit was presented by Horace Stine, George Markle and Ralph Whisler of Hanover. Doris Staley was the pianist.

During a business session future meetings were discussed and it was decided to conduct monthly sessions with the next meeting set for May 6 at York Springs. The meeting closed with the singing of one stanza of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and the benediction by the Rev. John C. Brumbach, pastor of Christ Reformed church at Littlestown.

Ask New Addresses For P.O. Records

The county Red Cross today urged all persons who plan to move, or who have moved, to leave forwarding addresses with the post office.

The appeal has been made necessary, it was pointed out, because thousands of vital messages concerning members of the armed forces who are killed in action, missing, or prisoners of war have been returned to the post office at Washington as unclaimed mail.

At the request of the War and Navy departments, the Red Cross Home service is attempting to locate relatives who should receive the messages. Persons registering a forwarding address with the post office would facilitate the delivery of the messages, it was pointed out.

Blamey declared that "the profound shock" of the losses recently suffered by the Japanese in the Bismarck sea and in other related actions has taught them they cannot move large forces without first gaining air control.

In a half-hour running battle over Wewak, midway on the northeast coast of New Guinea, a single Allied heavy bomber yesterday battled twelve intercepting Japanese fighters and brought down seven with only "negligible damage" to itself. The Allied communiqué said.

Yesterday's heavy Port Moresby fight followed by 24 hours a raid by 45 fighters and bombers on Oro Bay, where Allied airmen knocked out enemy planes.

The repulse of the Port Moresby raid, described officially as "a complete defeat" for the Japanese, was accomplished at the cost of relatively light Allied losses, Allied headquarters said.

Experts Choose St. Louis Cardinals To Again Win League Championship

PICK BROOKLYN FOR 2ND PLACE WITH REDS 3RD

By WHITNEY MARTIN
New York, April 13 (AP)—The uncertainties of baseball this year failed to bring any uncertainty to the minds of the baseball experts as to which team will win the National league pennant.

Figuring it always is best to string along with a champion when in doubt, the 72 scribes taking part in the annual Associated Press poll selected the St. Louis Cardinals as their No. 1 team by an overwhelming majority.

Fifty-four voters picked the world champions for first place, with no ballot placing them lower than third. The Brooklyn Dodgers, runner-up last year, ranked second, drawing 11 first-place votes and no vote lower than fourth.

Cubs Share Vote
The only other team considered for first place were the Cincinnati Reds, with four votes, and the Chicago Cubs, who got three. The Reds ranked third, right behind the Dodgers, figuring on the point basis of 8 points for first, 7 for second, 6 for third, etc.

Behind the Reds, in order, came the Cubs, the New York Giants, the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Boston Braves, and, as usual, the Philadelphia Phils. The point totals ranged from the 554 assembled by the Cards to the Phils' 87. The Phils have one backer who thinks they will wind up in fifth place, and one optimist also has the Braves tabbed for that slot.

The Cards and the Dodgers are the only teams not pushed into the second division by at least one voter. The Reds were ticketed for every place from first to sixth, and the Cubs from first to seventh. The Giants were picked to finish anywhere from second to seventh.

Guessing Contest
The voters, although they gave the champions an overwhelming vote of confidence, are acutely aware that this year the predicting is more of a guessing contest than ever, with the draft and other factors associated with the war making even the day-to-day strength of the clubs problematical.

In fact, some of the scribes made a note of the fact that their selections were based purely on the prospects of the various teams as of that particular day, and were not concerned with possibilities that might hinge on the man-power situation. The voting:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	Pts.
St. Louis	64	14	4	—	—	—	—	—	654
Brooklyn	11	35	17	9	—	—	—	—	480
Cincinnati	4	12	20	22	12	—	—	—	400
Chicago	3	9	17	18	11	13	1	—	364
New York	—	1	11	12	27	20	1	—	303
Pittsburgh	—	1	3	11	20	34	3	—	288

Bucky Harris still is keeping the phones busy trying to acquire a shortstop, utility infielder and a left handed hitting outfielder.

Wilmington, Del.—The Philadelphia A's won a ball game yesterday and may have found themselves a pitcher at the same time. John Burrows, property of the Wilmington Blue Rocks, hurled for the Athletics and allowed the Washington Senators only four hits in five innings.

Today the A's play Toronto of the International league.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, April 13 (AP)—The season is at hand for selecting this year's major league pennant winners, though we can't see what good it will do this year when the team you pick in April may be just a bunch of individuals in Uncle Sam's uniforms by October. . . . Why not just wait until the end of the season and then say: "See, I told you so?" . . . At any rate, here's what this dept. has to offer in the way of selections:

NATIONAL LEAGUE
To pick a winner, just pick a Card; They're full of pep and try so hard. But never overlook the Dodgers, A bunch of ancient, draft-free codgers.
The Reds rely on muscle magic. If they're not third, it will be tragic. The Giants, Pirates and Cubs come next.
As pennant contenders they're all braved.
The Braves and Phillies are in the rear
With very little hope or cheer.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
The first-place vote goes to the Yanks.
As hard to stop as Sherman tanks. Boston comes second, on a guess. Because we like the Indians less. Despite the ballyhoo for St. Looney. The Browns are fourth, and that's no hokey.
Then Tigers, White Sox, Senators.
Who are lucky if in the league they stays.

TODAY'S GUEST STAR
C. M. Gibbs, Baltimore Sun: "With the parking lot at Pimlico open during the forthcoming spring meet this means drivers may enter and park—at their own risk. . . . Having done this, they may then go on in and bet—also at their own risk."

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE

Manufacturers are working on two different kinds of plastic golf balls and expect to come up with an acceptable substitute for rubber soon. . . . The Women's International Bowling Congress not only bought a bomber for Uncle Sam with $1.50 contributions but the members have "adopted" its two-man crew, Capt. William J. Crum and M-Sgt. William B. Morehead. . . . Clair Berry, the Tigers' traveling secretary, never goes to ball games because he's afraid he might become a baseball fan and "let my prejudices as a fan interfere with my work with the boys." . . . Louis Messina, promoter of Friday's Charley Burley-Kid Cocoa fight at New Orleans, has invited 5,000 service men to see it on the cuff and claims to be the first promoter to play Santa Claus to so many men.

ONE HIT, ONE ERROR

Bill Brandt, who takes considerable pride in the accuracy of his National league "green book," is the first to spot a mistake in the records of games won and lost at home and abroad. The headings were reversed, thus giving every club in the league a better record on the road than at home.

SERVICE DEPT.

First Class Specialist Max Marek, who once outpointed Joe Louis in Joe's amateur boxing days, is at Floyd Bennett Field, N. Y., instructing sailors in boxing, wrestling and judo. . . . When Lieut. Dan Pollock, director of physical training at Moore Field, Tex., started from his southern Illinois home to become a star athlete at St. Edwards university in Texas some years ago, he had just $6 in his pocket. His first hitch-hike ride was with some city slickers who relieved him of a fin in a shell game. . . . The Army can't teach Dan anything about the old Army game.

St. Vincent's Drops Football Program

Lafayette, Pa., April 13 (AP)—St. Vincent college announced today abandonment of varsity football until victory, because of the difficulties of travel and the increased number of students being called into the service.
Grid Coach Gene Edwards is now physical instructor for the squadron of Army Air Cadets training here. Since taking over in 1932, Edwards raised the eleven to one of the top-ranking Class B squads, with 56 victories, 24 defeats and 12 ties during the period. The Bearcats, steam-rolled all Class B opponents during the past two years and were making a bid for a Class A spot when the war emergency arose.

NATIONAL AAU BOUTS ATTRACT CRACK BOXERS

By BILL KING

Boston, April 13 (AP)—Critical oldtimers who have been observing amateur boxing hereabouts for as many as four decades today agreed that the youngsters now battling for medals in the National AAU's second wartime championship tournament are the best they have seen in years.

They based their opinions on the 51 bouts both on yesterday and last night by 83 hand-picked fisticuffs, including many from the armed services. The field was reduced to 32 for tonight's semi-final round.
The service men, most making their first start in the nationals, appeared better trained and much stronger than the usual tyros and many civilian entries have had previous experience scrapping for the eight titles at stake.

Cleveland Leads
When the first night's glove-swinging ceased, Cleveland's well-balanced team, which qualified all but one of its seven members, shared top honors with nine service men, seven from the Army and one each from the Marine Corps and Navy.
Among the 32 survivors were three of last year's winners, two of whom are title defenders, Samson Powell of Cleveland, in the 160-pound division, and Bob Foxworth of St. Louis, in the 175-pound class. A year ago LeRoy Jackson, also of Cleveland, topped the 112-pounders, but tonight he will be striving for the 118-pounds crown.

Plenty of Talent
Every division had at least one outstanding entry but the 147-pounds class appeared choked with talent. Successful welterweights were Private Tony Vero, a Marine stationed at Albany, N. Y., Private Billy Tiger, a full-blooded Indian from Fort Sill, Okla., Eddie Gettys of New Orleans, and Charles Cooper of Washington. Each indicated by his trial performance that he can box and slug equally well.

Two of last year's semi-finalists, Charlie Hunter of Cleveland, and Aubrey Hilderfield of Little Rock, Ark., dominated the 135-pounds battling and Corporal Bliss Croft, stationed at the air base at Smyrna, Tenn., stamped himself the best of a fine flock of heavyweight title contenders.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir,

I am very lucky indeed that I am able to write you this letter. In fact after what happened last night, for a while I did think my letter writing days were over.

We were sitting in our tent talking as usual when the guard called out "Air Raid!" When we hear the words "Air Raid" we know it isn't practice but instead the real thing. As it was raining, out went our G. I. rain coats as well as our good old "tin hats." Just as we got out of the tent I heard a sound which made chills go up and down my back and I also knew my buddies felt the same.

Right over our heads and flying approximately 1,000 feet were four large German airplanes. Flying overhead didn't give us half the chills as the machine guns on the planes did. The first thing to enter my mind was "cover." In the Army the word "cover" means lie flat down on the ground and just hope you're not hit.

My buddies also had the same idea 'cause they too fell flat to the ground or maybe I should say fell flat in the mud. It was really muddy and the rain was falling fast. As the planes went over their machine guns spit shells all around us and looking up I could see the flashes coming from the guns as well as hear the thud of bullets hitting the ground all around us. This was the closest for me yet and I hope it is the last time but then every day over here you take a chance. By this time the anti-aircraft guns were in full swing and giving Gerry a display of assorted fireworks as well as giving us a shower of shrapnel. I didn't care to be hit by a piece of shrapnel so I hit the hole nearby. It was just a hole in the earth but at this time it was heaven to me.

I'll never forget last night as it was sure a hell of a night. I've seen plenty of air raids, the real thing, but from now on I'd rather have them at a distance from me instead of right overhead. Yes I would like to tell you more about what happened last night but I feel sure you will hear all about it yourself. For now I'll say good bye and will write you soon, that is, if possible. Thanks for still sending me The Times as to me it is the best paper in the world. Before I say good bye I can almost assure you that the war here on the desert will be over very soon. I wish all of my friends in the service the very best of luck and I know they will do their job well.

Sincerely yours,
PVT. GEO. C. MITCHELL, JR.
P. S. Keep up your good work of sending The Times to service men and women for I know they all appreciate it as I do.

Thanks!

Dear Sir:
I will try to inform you and the people of Adams Co. a little bit about Army life at Camp Howze.

Texas, I believe, is going to live up to its name as being noted for its beautiful scenery. Spring is showing effects on and around Camp Howze. The grass is turning green and the trees and flowers are in bloom.

On Thursday night of this week, Battery B took part in a war maneuver problem. We started out with our howitzer guns and trucks in the afternoon, and about 3 o'clock we took part in a "mock war." It was the first time our men ever fired a howitzer, and it was a thrilling sensation I'm sure we won't forget for awhile.

We had chow in a well concealed area, out of sight of air attack. At dark we reached our destination. We had to be concealed from "enemy" attacks, therefore we had to make camp in a complete black-out. We pitched our tents, dug our trenches and prepared our howitzers for action. After that, all of us took part in guard duty in shifts from 10 o'clock to 5:30 in the morning when we broke camp. All this took place north of Red River.

The above statement is only one of many ways of which the Army trains its men. I'm sure that all this training will play a big part in winning victory for the United States. All of us young men are working together in this training and most of us like it swell.

In closing, I wish to thank you for The Gettysburg Times.
Yours very truly,
PVT. JAY CHRONISTER,
Camp Howze, Texas.

Dear Sir:

I have received a few copies of The Times and have appreciated it very much. All of the other boys from Gettysburg have gotten theirs, too.

We are all having a swell time here at camp. We are stationed at the Portland Army Air base barracks but we are under orders from Vancouver. We are in the state of Oregon and our orders come from the state of Washington. We were glad to hear how good the Gettysburg high school basketball team made out. They really played very good from what we read in The Times.

Today is the first day the sun has shown in nearly two weeks. We are finished our basic training and have started our technical work. We go to school in tents for an afternoon and a morning, then the next afternoon and morning we work on our fertilizing units on large trailer trucks.

I am writing this in one of the schooling classes so will close. Hoping you will continue to send us the news from home.

PVT. CHARLES R. FRIDINGER,
Co. A, 307th Q.M. Bn.,
Q.M. U. T. C.,
Vancouver, Washington

Dear Sir:

I am writing to let you know that I appreciate your kindness in sending me your paper. I have received it regularly since I have been in the service. It really keeps a fellow in touch with the things that happen back home. However, I regret that I didn't write earlier but we are always busy doing something.

There is about everything here at Fort Sill that any soldier could ask for. It really is a swell camp. We have a number of movies, recreation halls, post exchanges, etc., and all kinds of sports.
We have the craziest weather out here. We don't know what to wear. In the evening it may be warm, and in the time morning comes around it could be freezing outside. However, the past two weeks have been real nice. There is a wind blowing dust in our face just about all the time. But we are used to it now. We had one good rain since I am here, which will soon be three months.

Most of our training so far is in the class rooms. I am in Instrument and Survey which is real interesting. Our officers are real nice to us and are willing to help us all they can. I think the Field Artillery is one of the best branches of the armed forces.

There are several other boys here from near Gettysburg and we are all willing to do our part to bring this war to an end as soon as possible so we can return to good old Pennsylvania.

Again I want to thank you for your kindness in sending the paper and may you continue to do so.

Sincerely yours,
PVT. PRESTON MYERS,
Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

AT LEAST 5,100 KILLED BY SUBS IN W. ATLANTIC

By FRANK H. ECK

New York, April 13 (AP)—The submarine-infested western Atlantic has taken the lives of at least 5,100 men and possibly more than 8,000 as a result of the announced loss of 644 Allied and neutral vessels in those waters since Pearl Harbor.

Seventy-three were added to the casualty list last week with an announcement of the destruction of three U. S. cargo ships. This loss is much higher than in previous weeks when the ship toll was greater.

Figures compiled Monday reveal 5,100 seamen listed as dead and 2,720 missing, with most of the latter considered lost.

Sinkings announced thus far this year show that 1,075 men on American ships have given their lives in the past three months in an effort to keep the Allied supply lines open. The total number of seamen lost off American merchantmen since September 27, 1941, now stands at 1,671 dead and 2,989 missing.

19th Sinking
The Axis U-boat attack which sent a United States vessel to the bottom early this month, as announced last week, marked the 19th Allied and neutral vessel sunk off the eastern coast. A British merchantman, lost last August, previously had been the last announced sinking off the coast.

Associated Press figures of announced sinkings reveal that 255 of the 644 merchant ships sunk in the western Atlantic belonged to the United States. Great Britain's announced merchant losses in the same waters total 125.

Father Divine Not Welcome In Berks

Reading, Pa., April 13 (AP)—Protesting against the projected sale of Sunset Hall, swank Berks county resort in South Mountain, to Father Divine, negro cult leader, residents of Wernersville and South Heidelberg township will meet Thursday night in Wernersville high school to hear reports from a committee appointed at a mass meeting in Wernersville Sunday.

Dr. Oscar E. Fox, H. F. Towson and Harold Aulenbach were named to talk with J. Turner Moore, president of the Berks County Trust company, agent for bondholders in the sale proceedings.

Mother Of 13 Is Railroad Worker

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Mrs. Cecelia Wega, 33, mother of 13 children, finds time to do her part in the war effort—working 48 hours a week as a laborer for the Pennsylvania railroad.

It didn't start out as a war job, she said. Her husband was out of work and the family desperately needed money. There were 15 mouths to feed and "we just couldn't get along," she said adding:

"I heard the railroad was hiring women. I didn't tell them how many children I had, fearing I wouldn't get the job."

"I put in a long day," she said, "but it's worth it if we can get those Japs licked." The older children manage the housework and look after the younger ones when Mrs. Wega is at work.

PAY TRIBUTE TO JEFFERSON ON 200TH FETE

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The nation for whom he penned a Declaration of Independence honored Thomas Jefferson today on the 200th anniversary of his birth, and Washington paid its tribute by dedicating to him a white marble memorial.

President Roosevelt arranged to deliver a brief address commemorating the bi-centennial, but the time and place were not announced. Members of the Cabinet, Supreme Court, Congress and the Diplomatic corps and most of the rest of official Washington were invited to the ceremonies at the Jefferson shrine at noon, along with 150 descendants of the third President.

Descendant Present
The honor of pulling a cord unfurling a flag from a 19-foot statue of Jefferson fell to his youngest living descendant, two and one-half year old Anthony Ernad Pathman of Pike county, Missouri.

Resting on land built up out of the waters of the capital's tidal basin the memorial is a $3,000,000 structure in a modified design of the Pantheon at Rome. It is circular, with a tremendous dome and 26 Ionic columns.

For the time being, only a plaster statue will rest in it. It will be replaced by a bronze one following the war.

A charge of involuntary manslaughter has been lodged against the driver of the car, State Police-man H. A. Rogers reported.
The policeman identified the driver as Sgt. Joseph H. Freeman, of a Boston, Mass., Army base.

U.S. WILL NEED $70,000,000,000 SAYS OFFICIAL

By GEORGE CULLEN

Washington, April 13 (AP)—America is responding with a flood of dollars, to the greatest appeal for funds in history—the government's $13,000,000,000 Second War Loan campaign, the Treasury reported today.

The drive was opened officially last night by Secretary Morgenthau, but even before he addressed a rally at Carnegie Hall in New York reports began pouring into the Treasury indicating a tremendous public response.

"This is a people's war—so all of the people ought to have a part in financing it," Morgenthau told the rally in urging full participation by everyone.

Stressing the Treasury's urgent need for funds, the secretary warned that heavier financial sacrifices will be required of the people.

Need 70 Billion

"Ten per cent is no longer enough," he said. "We are asking everyone to buy extra bonds this month, even workers who are now participating in the payroll savings plan."

Coincident with opening of the three-week campaign, the Treasury disclosed tentative plans to raise a total of $70,000,000,000 this year—plans which will strike heavily at individual pocketbooks.

Morgenthau explained that the government expects to spend about $100,000,000,000 this year and that only $30,000,000,000 of this will be provided by taxes. That means, he said, that $70,000,000,000 must be borrowed, unless tax rates are increased.

To keep down inflationary forces, the Treasury wants to get the major part of this money from nonbanking sources—at least $48,000,000,000. Of this amount, the Treasury has a tentative quota of $25,000,000,000 from individuals, $13,000,000,000 from corporations and $3,000,000,000 from insurance companies. Banks will be expected to supply $22,000,000,000.

More Borrowing

This means, Treasury officials say, that every person receiving income above the barest subsistence level will have to be reached. The bulk of the $25,000,000,000 expected from individuals must come, they say, from persons earning from $1,000 to $5,000 because it is this group that will have three-quarters of the year's current income after taxes.

With successful completion of the Second War Loan, the Treasury will have borrowed $20,000,000,000 towards its $70,000,000,000 goal for the year. This leaves $50,000,000,000 to be raised by more borrowing in the next eight months beginning in May, unless Congress increases taxes.

PRIEST MOVED

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—The Rev. Joseph L. Loneragan, 60, who attracted widespread attention several years ago when he built a church estimated to be worth $135,000 for $37,000 through donated labor, has been named pastor of St. Bernard's Catholic church, Mt. Lebanon, one of the largest in the Pittsburgh diocese.

Just Folks

By Edgar A. Quest
SPRING THOUGHT
Into the garden the springtime comes,
Not to the rolling of martial drums;
Not to the stirring bugle sound,
But the warmth of the sun on the frozen ground.
Into the garden comes spring again,
To the robin's note and the falling rain;
To the song of the cardinal, high and clear
And the call of all living things, far and near.
Out of the garden King Winter goes,
Clearing the way for the summer rose;
Clearing the fields for the month of May
And the hyacinth white and the tulips gay.
Out of the world may all war depart
And peace come back to the human heart.
May laughter and song be heard once more
And the world be bright with the freedoms four.

Today's Talk

By George Mathew Adams
SIX REPORTERS
When this tragic war is over, historians will cull from the records of scores of newspaper reports much of the story that will remain as authentic and revealing. During my convalescence from a recent illness I have read six books that seem to tell in graphic manner what this war is about. And yet these are but a handful of those worthy to be read, many of which I intend to read later.
These six, however, should be read by increasing numbers. They are: "They Were Expendable," by W. L. White; "Guadalcanal Diary," by Richard Tregaskis; "Seven Came Back," by Eddie Rickenbacker; "We Thought We Heard the Angels Sing," by Lieut. James C. Whitaker; "Into the Valley," by John Hersey, and "They Call It Pacific," by Clark Lee.
These reporters know what war is, as it is being fought today. They have all been front-line reporters, sharing the fortunes of war with the brave boys about whom they talk. I am sure that each book will challenge the patriotism of every reader. Who can read any one of them and then complain about the puny sacrifices that we are called upon to make on the home front?
The brave boys talked about are rationing their very lives. They are daily bathed in fire. They know no hours. It's double time—and pay doesn't count—with them.
Tragically remarkable is the story by Lieut. Whitaker because it supplements in detail the story of Eddie Rickenbacker and emphasizes the increasing faith that these brave lads put in God. In fact, the story reads as though they had been placed in the spell of a religious revival, with the invisible God exhorting them to hold out and not despair. Not even did brave Sergeant Alex Kaczmarczyk despair, though the great Pacific took him to her arms, consecrating those arms forever.
The reading of these books is sure to give any reader a spiritual awakening, and plant in his heart a firmer faith in democratic institutions, and the free way of life that has for so long been enjoyed by those who have been born to it, or who have inherited it through right of choice or who have earned it through "blood, sweat, and tears."
Said Lieut. Whitaker to the thousands in the United States: "Before this last trip I used to wonder what sort of people we had out there face to face with the Japs. They are the kind the Japs can never beat. And I told them the story of the raids; how during those blazing days out there I found my God."
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Looking And Listening."

Senate Convenes In 6 A.M. Session; Heated Debate

"SILLY NOTION" BRINGS SOLONS TO EARLY MEET

Harrisburg, April 13 (AP)—Heated exchanges between Republicans and Democrats marked at a dawn meeting of the Senate today, but he atmosphere cleared after one of the verbal combatants expressed a hope that "all of us will keep our equilibrium."
"These are rather touchy times," added Sen. Thomas R. Wilson (R-McKean), ending the flare-up after all personal references had been expunged from the record with approval of both sides.
Senators saw the sun come up through the chamber's broad windows because of a demand by Democrats, fighting the administration's congressional reapportionment bill, for full reading of bills instead of the customary procedure of reading them by title only.
Bill Is Late
A number of senators arrived on time for the 6 a. m. meeting, most appearing fresh but a few sleepy-eyed. Senator John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland) came in humming, "Good Morning To You" and others took up the refrain whistling.
At 6:07 a. m. Sen. Elmer Holland (D-Allegheny) cried: "Let's get going, Heyburn," addressing Republican floor leader Weldon Heyburn. About that time Lieut. Gov. John C. Bell, Jr., the presiding officer strode into the chamber and rapped for order.
"Having waited for you gentlemen sometimes for two hours," Bell said with a smile, "it is a pleasure for me to have you gentlemen wait seven minutes for me."
The tossing of personalities started when Heyburn began delaying action on bills by the parliamentary tactic of putting consideration of them over in order.
"Vocal Blows"
When Democrats objected, Heyburn said that so long as the minority party stood by its "silly notion" of reading bills at length, only the most important measures would be taken up.
A long and often heated debate ensued, and finally ended by each side applying oil to the troubled waters. Joining Wilson in closing the personalities, Sen. Joseph M. Barr (D-Allegheny) said the exchanges were "regrettable."
"I hope this controversy will not degenerate to the point of vocal blows," Barr said.
"I echo your remarks, senator," observed Bell.

ISSUE THREAT TO PUT LIMIT ON ARMY SIZE

Washington, April 13 (AP)—Announcement by War Manpower Chairman Paul V. McNutt that the end of 1943 will see most able-bodied fathers under 38 in the armed forces brought threat on Capitol Hill today of legislation to limit the size of the army.
Chairman May (D-Ky.) of the House Military committee said he would urge speedy Senate approval of legislation passed yesterday by the House to give deferment priorities to men with children and added that he would demand a Congressional review of manpower plans if "they don't stop fooling around down at the Manpower commission."
"Just where the Manpower commission plans to put all the men they apparently figure on drafting between now and the end of this year is more than I can figure," May said. "The last figures we got, from the War department itself, were based on an army of 7,500,000 men."
Must Show Need
While he was not prepared to say he would move immediately to control the size of the armed forces, the Kentucky added, "Something along that line will be forthcoming unless they can show the need for all these men they seem to be determined to draft."
McNutt's statement that "simple arithmetic" would require the induction of all fathers except those with occupational or farm deferments and a comparatively few "hardship cases," was made in connection with announcement of new draft regulations.
Briefly, the new regulations abolished the 3-B classification, heretofore held by fathers engaged in essential occupations; "froze" into class 3-A all fathers with dependents born prior to Sept. 15, 1942; created a new 3-D group for "hardship" cases, and swept away all dependency deferment for childless married men.
McNutt added that when wholesale drafting of fathers begins "some changes are indicated" in the financial allotments to families.

12 NEW RULES TO ADD SPEED IN BALL LOOP

By PHIL CLARKE
Atlanta, April 13 (AP)—Showman Joe Engel, head man of the Chattanooga Baseball club who runs his team like a three-ring circus, thumbed idly through a brand new manual from Southern association headquarters and grinned.
"Yes sir," spoke Joe. "This is just what we need to pep up the old ball game."
Engel referred to a set of twelve wartime instructions for players and umpires authored by Veteran Baseballer Billy Evans, serving his first year as Southern association president.
Need Speed, Hustle
Baseball Evans believes the game needs speed and hustle. The 59-year-old former big league umpire, who served several years as general manager of the Cleveland Indians, thinks it's the ump's job to help keep things rolling along and he says so.
Under the new rules, Southern association umpires will fire new balls directly to the pitcher, rather than hand them to the catcher for 'round the infield tossing.
There will be no long conferences at the home plate when umpires go on the diamond to start games.
Cut Conferences
And even arguments will be streamlined. When there is a dispute over a decision, no players other than those involved may take part, and when a pitcher is the last man out, retiring his side, he's to go directly to the pitching mound instead of returning to the bench.
Only the catcher and one infielder will be permitted to confer with a faltering hurler, and bench managers will have the right to go to the mound just once during an inning.
Both teams are to run to and from their positions with no conversation among players on the way.
All of which may mean that Joe and Mabel will get a chance to take in that doubleheader before the night shift begins at the war plant.

Committee Kills "Pay-As-You-Go" Tax

Washington, April 13 (AP)—The House Ways and Means committee voted down 16 to 9 Monday an effort by nine Republican members to reopen consideration of pay-as-you-go tax legislation.

The Republican's motion to reopen the bitter tax battle was offered by Representative Reed (R-N. Y.) while Secretary of State Hull, stood before the committee awaiting to put in a plea for extension of the reciprocal trade agreements law.

Reed asked the committee to turn to the tax problem immediately after Hull had testified, and to defer reciprocal trade considerations until the committee reported a new pay-as-you-go tax bill to the House.

Storms Kill Six In Alabama Towns

Birmingham, Ala., April 13 (AP)—Six persons were killed and many others injured Monday when storms struck the north Alabama towns of Hackleburg and Vinemont.

The business section of Hackleburg, 90 miles northwest of Birmingham, was destroyed, and four persons were killed there, Stone J. Crane, Red Cross field representative said.

Two others were reported killed and at least a dozen injured at Vinemont, 70 miles north of Birmingham, and about the same distance east of Hackleburg.

Troops of the British Eighth army ride mobile equipment along this road near El Hamma, Tunisia, as captured Italian troops wearily walk toward the rear along the same road. This is an official British photo via radio from Cairo.

AMENDMENTS SUGGESTED FOR PAROLE SYSTEM

Harrisburg, April 13 (AP)—Pennsylvania's nine-month-old parole system apparently won a new lease on life today under a decision of the Senate Republican majority to defeat a bill aimed at scrapping it.

Amendments to the present parole law were approved, however, to substitute a three-member board for the five-member body now serving and give it jurisdiction over prisoners sentenced to three terms or more instead of two.

Republican Leader Weldon B. Heyburn said the Senate probably will send back to committee—for keeps—a measure by Senator H. Jerome Jansan (D-Phila.) to abolish the Parole Board and return its duties to county courts and the state Pardon Board.

Needs Fair Test

Action on the proposal came after weeks of delay in a GOP caucus committee. Jansan claimed the set-up was expensive and ineffective but the majority decided it needed to operate longer for a fair test.

Amendments to carry out the changes in the parole law were prepared by the Justice department and will be sponsored by Senator Adrian H. Jones (R-Luzerne).

The amendments call for elimination of civil service qualifications for Parole Board personnel and provide for appointment of district supervisors by the board with approval of the governor rather than after civil service tests as at present.

Other changes provide that the board in all cases consider recommendations of the trial judge, district attorney and warden or superintendent who has had charge of a parole applicant.

Power to Parole

Power of the board to parole would be extended to prisoners sentenced to definite or flat sentences. Inmates of industrial schools at White Hill and Huntingdon are excluded from the board's jurisdiction.

The new plan would reduce the salary of the board chairman from $10,500 to $10,000 and that of other

100-Day Quarantine On Pittsburgh Dogs

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—A 100-day quarantine on all dogs in the city went into effect today, after the death of Charles Erdman, 76, due to rabies.

Dr. I. Hope Alexander said Erdman had been bitten by a dog 42 days ago and that he failed to take immunizing treatment.

Swissvale, Elizabeth, Reserve Township and Glenfield, already have imposed a similar quarantine.

Dr. Alexander said heads of 31 dogs examined in March and 17 examined so far this month have been found to be infected. Others are under investigation.

Under the quarantine dogs must be firmly secured by collar and chain so they cannot stray from the owners' premises. If dogs are picked up, owners will have to pay $25 to claim them.

members from $10,000 to $9,000.

Present members who would be removed from office upon passage of the amendments are Chairman Dr. Louis N. Robinson, J. Paul Pedigo, Dr. Mary Bell Harris, Dr. Dallas W. Armstrong and John P. Haggerty.

Brother, Sister Of Slain Girl Ill

Pittsburgh, April 13 (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Williams, who have just buried their slain four-year-old daughter, Theresa, kept a close watch today on two younger children ill of pneumonia.

Physicians said the youngsters, Anthony, 3, and Annette, 20 months, were quite sick but not in serious condition.

Theresa was found buried in the cellar of a neighbor's home last Wednesday after she had been missing ten hours. District Attorney Russell H. Adams said Early Perry, 17, admitted raping and strangling her.

New Cumberland, Pa., April 13 (AP)—New regulations announced by Lieut. Col. William A. Fulmer, commander of the New Cumberland Army reception center, limit visitors to the vicinity of the new visitors' building and parking lot near the main gate.
